Attracted to his hostess, Ranjini, he lays out well prepared for any eventuality, and is introduced to a number of fellow passengers. Out of these Ajit Talwar, Kapoor and their group are unhappy when they find out that he works for the income tax department and bug his room to find out what he really is up to. Ajit then tries to kill him, but instead falls overboard. Bharat unknowingly throws up a life jacket, while Ajit's goon pushes him overboard. The next day, the duo wake up on an isolated island and Bharat almost makes his way home, starting to sing old Bollywood songs a lot to Ajit's chagrin who is desperate to come home to attend a meeting. Waiting for a quick rescue, the duo will be in for quite a shock when they find they are not completely alone on this...
